

The Tenth Annual International Nursing Forum

Sponsored by Oita University of Nursing and Health Sciences
& the Oita Chapter of the Japanese Nursing Association

“Issues and Trends in On – The – Job Training for New Nurses”

Date: Saturday, November 1, 2008

Time: 12:30 to 5:00 PM

Place: B-Con Plaza, Beppu City, Oita Prefecture, Japan

The Program Schedule

- 12:30 – Greeting, Opening Remarks
Tomoko Kusama, RN, PHN, PhD, President
Oita University of Nursing and Health Sciences
- 12:35 – 13:35 The Present State of Actual Hospital Training Systems for New Nurses in Korea
Kwang Ok Park, RN, PhD
Chief of the Nursing Division
Asan Medical Center, Seoul, Korea
- 13:35 – 14:35 Program Characteristics of New Graduate Residencies and Support Available for Underrepresented New Nurses in Washington State
Kathy Hare, RN, MN
Principle Investigator/ Program Associate
Washington Center for Nursing, Seattle, Washington, USA
- 14:35 – 14:55 Intermission (20 minutes)
- 14:55 – 15:55 The 2009 Curriculum Revision and the Systematization of On-The-Job Training for New Nursing Personnel in Japan
Yoko Nomura, RN, PhD
Nursing Section Chief, The Japanese Ministry of Health, Labour, and Welfare
- 15:55 – 16:55 General Discussion
Moderators:
Toshiko Oshita, Professor
Oita University of Nursing and Health Sciences

Miho Tonai, Associate Professor
Oita University of Nursing and Health Sciences
- 16:55 – 17:00 Closing of the Program
Kazue Koga, President
Oita Chapter of the Japanese Nursing Association